SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1862.

THE CITY.

No advertisement of "A thorough business man" in another column.

FARM ALARM.—The alarm of fire, last evening, about nine o'clock, originated in the house at the North Side Skating Pond.

THE GREAT SKATING-POWDER.—The Great Western Pond will be present at the Olympic Skating Pond the afternoon in full force, skating commencing at half past two.

THE FIFTY-EIGHTH REGIMENT.—The Fifty-eighth regiment, Col. Loyal, commanding, now stationed at Camp Douglass, are under marching orders and expect to leave for Cairo Monday next.

MARSHAL'S PARADE.—Prof. Anderson, in addition to his evening entertainment, will give an extra exhibition this afternoon at Bryan Hall, for the special accommodation of ladies and children.

LOW BUSINESS.—The entire sales of live stock—The entire amount in round numbers to amounts of $75,000, which may be taken as a fair average. This little business at every stock yard may safely challenge comparison.

THE REBELLION RECORD.—Volume two of this work is just published. As this is the most complete history of the rebellion, all who are interested in history should possess this work. Mr. Walsh, on Madison street, can supply it in numbers or volumes.

WAN MEETING.—The next war meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held on Saturday evening, Feb. 11, in Mr. Fair's (Congregational) Church on the West Side. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Swazy, and others, will address the meeting. These meetings have been very interesting and useful thus far.

"OUR BOYS."—SUBORDINATE REGIMENT.

Col. Loyal, of the Ninety-ninth Regiment, last evening to join his company at Beacon Creek, Ky., having in charge boxes and packages almost without number, for members of the regiment. We predict stirring times ahead for the Ninetieth, and when duty calls, they will not be found wanting.

PRESIDENTIAL PRESENTATION.—Edward Hamilton, Esq., and formerly of the firm of Hamilton & George of this city, was made the recipient, yesterday, of a splendid box and accessories, containing the personal effects of one of his personal friends. Mr. Hamilton has for many years been one of our most prominent merchants, and in leaving for the wars takes with him the best wishes and remembrances of a host of friends.

PRESENTATION OF GRAIN.—The immense corn crop of Sturges, Sibley & Co., on the 15th of January, has been sent in all its magnificence from the fields to the market, and has been fully appreciated by all who have seen it. No time of year will be more suitable for the sale of grain, and we trust that the market will be immediately commenced giving way a few days after the enormous pressure of its contents. Braces have been fastened, however, to the sides, and the structure is now strengthened beyond danger of falling. The market does the present pressure of grain, and the bin was built in the most substantial manner.

SAFETY AGAINST DRUGGISTS.—The suits instituted against the dry druggists for selling liquor without a license have all been settled, and the cases issued in all the courts have been finally decided. The only suit of note, however, is that brought before the court of common pleas by the manufacturer and consumer against his cannibalistic operations by filing a suit out of a man's cheek, "she won't meet you up the street." The unfortunate victim, not relishing the court's decision, had his legal action dismissed, and the court directed that the plaintiff be given three dollars, with a codicil of day's damages in the city of Philadelphia.

THE ST. LOUIS GUARDS.—The St. Louis party who attended the festival at the Sherman House on Thursday evening remained in the city yesterday, and will remain, we are told, until Saturday evening. The festival is a success in every particular. Yesterday was devoted to sight-seeing and sleigh-riding, and the evening was spent in a visit to the theater and American's parlor. The grand ball took place yesterday evening, and was most satisfactorily with their Chicago experience and eager for a speedy return of the same.

SABRAH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—Those of our readers who have attended the exhibitions of the Sabbath School of the Church of the Redeemer, and Universalist, will be interested to know that a number of amateur entertainments given in this city. We learn that one of these entertainments is now in progress, and that in conception and execution it is surpassing anything ever before witnessed. Brose Hall is engaged for two or three evenings, and although the occasion was two weeks distant, several hundred tickets are already sold. The programs will be of one hour's variety, and will include a number of choice dramatic songs in costume, pantomime, chaste and statutory tableau, to be performed by the three hundred girls and boys of the Sabbath School of the city, and will undoubtedly do so on the present occasion.

IN THE LOCK-UP.—A man by the name of Patrick Phiney, whose appearance before the police magistrates yesterday, for attempting to eat a man up, is the woman who met him at the Illinois Central station and com- menced her cannibalistic operations by biting a piece out of a man's cheek, "she won't meet you up the street." The unfortunate victim, not relishing the court's decision, had his legal action dismissed, and the court directed that the plaintiff be given three dollars, with a codicil of day's damages in the city of Philadelphia.

RECEIVERS' COURT.—Suits were filed in the Receiver's Court yesterday. At an early hour in the forenoon, the Grand Jury came in and announced the completion of their task, having examined all the presentations made to them.

The Clerk announced the following in- dictments to be filed in the court of common pleas: "John H. Breen, alias John Breen, for receiving and concealment of property of another, and for being a thief."

PHILADELPHIA FURNITURE.—A woman named Ann Hickey was arrested and brought before the police magistrates yesterday, for attempting to eat a man up. The woman was met at the Illinois Central station and com- menced her cannibalistic operations by biting a piece out of a man's cheek, "she won't meet you up the street." The unfortunate victim, not relishing the court's decision, had his legal action dismissed, and the court directed that the plaintiff be given three dollars, with a codicil of day's damages in the city of Philadelphia.

CHICAGO LECTURES ASSOCIATION.—Rev. Dr. Robert Boyd, of the Edina Baptist Church on State Street, has been delivering his lectures on the subject of "Christianity and the Civil War," which might be well entitled "Christianity and the Civil War."—A report of the course addressed to the police indicated that he had no right to do what he did, and a sufficient man was appointed to the police to demand that he be quieted.

A WALK TO SEASIDE.—On Wednesday afternoon, as skaters will recollect, over two thousand of our citizens were skating upon the lake outside the breakwater, the ice being nearly a foot in thickness. On Friday morning it was unbroken. On Friday morning it had all disappeared, and in its place the eye met only a shallow swelling wave, dotted here and there with a number of small ripples. It was a thrill to behold the movement of the frozen field taken place when covered with citizens. Should it prove that one has lost his balance, it would be a mere trifle to lay him on the snow, and have him roll along like a snowball upon the three ruffles.

CHICAGO MILL-FURNISHING.—On Wednesday afternoon, as skaters will recollect, over two thousand of our citizens were skating upon the lake outside the breakwater, the ice being nearly a foot in thickness.
